PRESIDENT'S LETTER

JANUARY 2025

The Christmas Party Committee put on yet another fun filled Christmas party. Big thank you to all. I even won something this year. Now I have to find time to sew it.

Speaking of which, I will have 3 yard quilt kits for the taking at this month's meeting. Please join the sew in after the meeting to get started on comfort quilt tops. We need to supply Judy with tops to quilt to build our comfort quilt stash.

For February, Mindy is offering to do a class on how to make a Moravian Star. Supply list and other information will be sent out before February's meeting.

Looking forward to seeing all of you this Saturday, January 18th at 10:30 at Shepherd of the Valley Church.

Ann Lind

AUDIT COMMITTEE: Laurie Adamson, Mindy Henricksen and Marné Provost volunteered to audit Debbie's treasurer's books. It's a work in progress since Dixie snoozed ... and left town for over a month ...

CHRISTMAS PARTY:

A BIG thank you to Christine, Mindy and Marcie for organizing and hosting our Christmas party in early December. Thanks also to all the helper elves for your hard work! In addition, many thanks to those who helped set up/clean up and to those who donated all the great prizes and pot luck!!!

We had a good time playing Bingo, Poke-A-Tree and wining prizes even for standing on a number on the floor!

The small barn quilt was won by Shannon Dillley, and everyone went home with a festive scissor keeper made by many worker elves. From the pictures Dixie received, it looks like a great time was had by all.

Most sparkly Christmas garb went to Marcie, and Christine won most original. Thank you to everyone who showed up, brought food, bought bag raffle tickets, participated in the games, voted and celebrated with us! The camaraderie was off the charts.

If you missed it.... there is always next year!

Party co-hosts: Marcie Benvin, Christine Moleski and Mindy Henricksen; Christine won Most Original; Marcie won Most Sparkly

Did you lose something? Two items were left behind after the party that the Elves would like to help find their way back to their owners. If you own either of these items, please let Ann know so we can get them back to you.

Item #1 with a lost owner

Item #2 with a lost owner

CONGRATULATIONS to SHANNON DILLEY who won the barn quilt!

QUILT SHOW 2026: We have a date! The Quilt Show is scheduled for May 15-17, 2026 at Centennial Hall. Stay tuned as things ramp up over the next many months! Thank you, Quilt Show crew: Christine Moleski, Marcie Benven and Sheila Box!

COMFORT QUILTS: Judy Morley said she is willing to share quilting of the comfort quilts with all of us. She pointed out that the Guild buys batting. Marné said she pieced the batting she used with a zig-zag stitch. Raydene said she uses the batting tape and also sews the batting pieces together. Karen Paulick said she uses just the tape.

Ree Nancarrow: Sharing the World I Know

December 6, 2024 - March 15, 2025

Sharing the World I Know is a new solo exhibition featuring quilt works by Fairbanks art quilter Ree Nancarrow.

For 50 years, Nancarrow watched a small tundra pond outside her window called Deneki Lakes. She tracked the shifting habitat at the lake as the water level dropped over time. Fewer species live there now.

In 2010, Nancarrow started working with scientists through a program called In a Time of Change, which supports collaboration across the environmental arts, humanities, and sciences in Alaska. She explains how this collaboration informed her work: “The knowledge and deeper understanding of the natural world gained from working with these scientists has changed how I see the world, and how I describe it visually. That knowledge and concern for the world I live in led me to tell stories of climate change such as wildland fire, permafrost melt, development of greenhouse gases, bark beetle infestations, and creation of methane bubbles.”

She makes her quilts with custom-printed fabric. The fabric features images and designs she has collected and created over her art career. She sews them together and quilts each piece with intricate designs, enhancing their rich imagery and detail.

Both the exhibit opening and lecture are free. The exhibit runs through March 15, 2025.

CAPITAL CITY QUILTERS
NOVEMBER 16, 2024
DRAFT MINUTES

PRESENT: President Ann Lind, Vice President Marcie Benvin, and Secretary Dixie Alms.

Members: Genelle Massey, Cindy Schmiede, Jeanne Carr, Judy Macnak, Jackie Polasky, Karen Paulick, Raydene Garrison, Sandra Bleicher, Karen Smith, Laurie Adamson, Terry Bonnell, Louise Miller, Loretta Mosley, Marné Provost, Mariah Rice, Heather Ramseth, Judy Morley, Nancy Krehlik and Sandi Benzel.

Via zoom: Elaine Mahaffey (for a short time)

Proxies: Debbie Germain, Treasurer

President Ann called the meeting to order at 10:30 am. Quorum (need 16); one proxy.

Guest: Heather's guest, Sarah Smith, moved to Juneau from Pennsylvania. She has a longarm.

Minutes: The minutes were approved as written. Dixie will correct the spelling of Terry Bonnell's name.

Treasurer's report: Debbie is at an all day wrestling meet, so Ann gave her Treasurer's report. (Heather Ramseth and her guest, Sarah Smith arrived.) There were no questions.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

UFO: Sandra Bleicher reported that we had only one participant this year. She finished all her UFO contracts and received a nice gift. New UFO contracts will start in January and will end in October. Ann will take some contracts to the Christmas Party. The UFO form is on the website. Karen Paulick will change the dates. Sandra explained UFO contracts to everyone.

FOOD BANK: Ann pointed out the lunch box on the table for food bank cash donations for the church. Our rent is lowered based on the expectation that we will bring at least $50 worth of food monthly. (Judy Morley and Nancy Krehlik arrived.)

COMFORT QUILTS: Southeast Radiation Oncology donated $1000 to us to support our comfort quilt program. Marcie suggested we purchase two or more rolls of batting and put it in our storage unit until Judy needs it. (Sandi Benzel arrived.) Karen Paulick moved we purchase batting; Laurie Adamson seconded. Motion approved unanimously. Since Judy had left the room and missed the conversation, Ann repeated the information. Judy has room for the batting at her house and requested 120" rolls. She brought five quilts (and labels) today that need to be bound. Judy will be gone in December. Louise Miller has two that she can quilt and another in the works. She will get batting from Judy.

Ann said we've gone through a lot of fabric after the last two meetings cutting and grouping fabrics for 3 yard quilts. Ann brought baggies today and patterns so they can be kitted. Please stay after the meeting to help if you can.

DUES: Dues are now overdue and can be paid by check or cash. If you need to pay by credit card today, Ann can do it. Or you can call Debbie to do it.

PILLOWCASES: Shannon emailed her report since she is in Hawaii for a family wedding. She asks that any finished pillowcases be put upstairs for her. (Dixie thinks Marcie took the tote full for Shannon with her.) When she gets home, Shannon will call the four agencies (AWARE, Johnson Youth Center, Housing First and Pioneer Home) to see what they need. She knows Johnson Center will need some. In September, we donated 52 to the Pioneer Home and two to Housing First.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

CHRISTMAS PARTY: Marcie reported that our Christmas Party will be on Saturday, December 7th, at Safe Harbor Church from 2-4:30 pm. Behind Marcie is the barn quilt that Todd Wicks donated to us at the end of the quilt show. Tickets for the barn quilt will be $10. Sandra pointed out that a barn quilt that size sells for $480. We will have other prize/gift bags available for $5 tickets and for $2 tickets. There will be lots of games and prizes including Poke A Tree. In addition, there will be two prizes awarded for the most sparkly and for the most original sweater/apron. We will provide a ham. Please bring a dish to share with a main dish, salad or dessert. It will be a great time! Bring your cash, check book or credit card and a friend!

Marcie said the church just put a light on their sign making it easier to find. It is on Lee Smith Drive behind Wells Fargo Bank and Mike's Express on Glacier Highway in the Valley.

Ann said every party needs a pooper, so she will bring quilt kits in case anyone wants to take one or more to make before our January meeting.

AUDIT: (Namee Erickson arrived.) Dixie hasn't heard from Laurie yet, but Marné can meet pretty much anytime. Mindy can meet in the evenings or on weekends. We'll get a meeting set up as soon as we can. FEMA has taken over the meeting rooms at the library, so we may meet in someone's home. (Mariah Rice arrived.)

NEWSLETTER: Dixie is travelling in December. There will be no newsletter until January. Please send me your articles and pictures of the Christmas Party and of your projects.

2026 QUILT SHOW: Marcie reported that the show will be May 15-17, 2026 at Centennial Hall. There is no theme yet, but they are planning to have the quilts judged. The committee is looking for anyone who wants to help. The quilt categories are on the website, and Marcie encouraged everyone to show their quilts. If you don't want your quilts judged, they can be entered into the Serendipity category. Nancy Krehlik said the judge gives positive feedback which is helpful in letting us know how we can improve our work. Displayed quilts do not need to be fancy. There is a place for all quilts. Judy Macnak added that our mission statement says we share with the community which makes the show an outstanding outlet. Marcie said the show will continue to have a silent auction and a sales table. She added that we had a number of cruise ship passengers come through this year. The feedback that we got from tourists and locals was phenomenal! We also plan to have demonstration tables (suggestions: AccuQuilt, Easy Quilter, sewing, binding, piecing, etc.) Laurie Adamson will head up the sales table again. We have also had special displays of comfort quilts, Christmas items and of the Underground Railroad. We will need people to be there to wander the aisles and talk about the quilts or answer questions. The show is free to the public, but we have a donation box. The show is so big, we pretty much need all hands on deck. The committee (Christine Moleski, Marcie Benvenin and Sheila Box) were thanked for volunteering!

NEW BUSINESS: none

NOVEMBER BIRTHDAYS: Dixie Alms, Corey Davis, Caitlyn Cascade, Genelle Massey, Gen Nestler, Bev Schutt and JoAnn Steininger

SHOW AND TELL

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Genelle Massey shared that the Mendenhall Mall is kicking off the local vendors' sales at the mall this weekend and every weekend until Christmas. She belongs to PEO which is selling items to support their philanthropies.

INTRODUCTIONS

Meeting adjourned at 11:28 AM.

Respectfully submitted,
Dixie Alms, Secretary
