PRESIDENT'S LETTER

SEPTEMBER 2024

Please plan to stay after the meeting and cut quilt kits. Easy cutting. We are making 3 yard quilt kits so we are just cutting 1 yard pieces of a focus, light and dark. I have copies of Free patterns we can add to each kit.

At this month's meeting we will present the slate of nominees for the upcoming board election.

We will also present the proposed bylaws for discussion.

Ann Lind
907-209-2504

DUES! Dues are due this month! Even if you are unable to attend the meeting, please send your dues ($35) to PO Box 35036, Juneau 99803 in order to not have a lapse in membership. If you need to pay by credit card, contact Debbie Germain. If you are a new member who joined at the Quilt Show in June, your dues are current through August 2025.

Elections will be held and by-laws changes will be voted on in October since everything was put on hold in August when the meeting was cancelled.

Nominating committee and elections: The nominating committee will have a report at the meeting. If you are interested in running for office, please contact Marcie Benven, Nancy Krehlik or Genelle Massey. Anyone who has been a member in good standing for two or more years is eligible to run for office. Elections will be held in October since everything was put on hold when the meeting last month was cancelled. For more information, please contact Marcie.

By-laws committee will also have a report at the meeting. By-laws changes will be voted on in October for the same reasons we are having elections in October.

National Sew a Jelly Roll Day, started by Project Jelly Roll, is September 21st. You can find Project Jelly Roll videos and free patterns on my.modafabrics.com. Take a look! They have some beautiful quilts on display with a link to the free patterns. When sharing your jelly roll projects on social media, use the hashtag #NationalSewAJellyRollDay.

GQC All Star Sampler Platter: We are signed up for the upcoming Sampler Platter on September 28-29 from 3-6 pm Eastern Daylight Time. It will from 11 am to 2 pm Alaska time. Please be sure to note that if you are not able to attend on Saturday and/or Sunday, the link will provide a recorded version of the presentations. CCQ's email regarding the Sampler Platter was sent on September 7th with the information below:

“The upcoming All-Star Sampler is going to be a blast!
As a reminder, here is the link that everyone will use to log in to the livestream.

SOV Food Bank: Please remember to bring food to Shepherd of the Valley's food bank when you come to our meetings. Our rent for storage and use of the meeting room is reduced with the expectation that we will provide at least $50 worth of food to the food bank each month. Attending members have been doing quite well with contributions. It would be wonderful for members who are not able to attend meetings, but still have the benefit of our space rental, to contribute occasionally.

CCQ Zipper Pulls: The beautiful enamel zipper pulls from William Spear are available in blue or black. They will be sold to CCQ members for $15 each at CCQ Business Meetings.

Newsletter items are due the first Saturday of each month. Please send Show and Tell photos, articles and other items to dixiepeach@mac.com. Please remember Dixie is the editor not the article writer.

The International Quilt Museum is located at the University of Nebraska – Lincoln. It has the world’s largest publicly held collection of quilts and related items. The museum celebrates the artistic significance of quilts through exhibitions, global research, and diverse programs.

Quilt Alliance: quiltalliance.org; inspirational and informative articles, recordings and more; Quilt Alliance believes that quilts are historical documents containing important information about the life and times of the maker. To keep this history from fading away, we work to document, preserve and sharprome the stories of quilts and their makers.

Studio Art Quilt Associates \(SAQA\) works to promote the art quilt as a fine art medium. SAQA is a dynamic and active global community. Our 4,300+ members are artists, curators, collectors, and art professionals who are passionate about this art form.

Surface Design Association promotes textile art through publications, exhibitions, and events. SDA provides a platform for exchanging ideas, learning, and collaboration and encourages critical dialogue about fiber art. At the heart of SDA is its quarterly publication, Surface Design Journal, which brings readers an array of concepts, processes, and materials.
